

Perfect Elegance

Concept Education & Training Centre

To become a professional Nail Artist it is imperative that you are equipped with all the vital skills and knowledge needed.

Training with Perfect Elegance will not only give you those practical skills but also the practical knowledge and experience that the education team has gained over their years of experience.

Training Director Clare Durtnall-Holland has been in the nail and beauty industry for over seventeen years and is three times winner of the title 'Nail Professional of the Year' at the British Beauty and Spa Awards, an accolade which now sees her as a member of the Hall of Fame for her longstanding commitment to the industry. With such achievements and vast experience Clare will ensure you have all that is required to start your new career with confidence.

All courses have been carefully put together to ensure you receive the very best training and the very best products and all courses can be tailored to suit your unique requirements. On successful completion of all courses an industry recognised certificate is issued and insurance can be obtained before completion of your course, so you and your clients have peace of mind. Our courses and certificates count towards nationally recognised qualifications when completed.

Please read carefully through the information on each of the individual courses and feel free to call for more info. We are happy to give a complementary consultation and recommend a training schedule specifically suited to you and your unique requirements. As we all have a busy lifestyle we create our course dates around you, for you, to suit your unique requirements. Please speak to Clare directly to arrange dates.

All courses require a non-refundable deposit to secure your place, and the balance is due one week before the commencement of the course. See individual courses for their deposit amounts.
